was, to carry 500,000 passengers, 258,000 tons of minerals and merchandise, 85,000 live stock, of innerals and increasances, 85,000 fee stock, 1100 dogs, and 740 horses. The precise number of the travellers of the year cannot be stated, because there is no record of the journeys of season-ticket holders; but it must have been more than six times the number of the population of the United Kingdom. The the population of the United Kingdom. The trains—passenger and goods trains added to gether, travelled 2.997,748 miles more in 1861 than in 1860, which is equivalent to going round the world 116 times more last year than in the year before: 3.881.990 trains ran in the course of the year—that is to say upwards of 10.600 a day, or more in a day than seven times the number of minutes in the day. If the trains had been equally distributed, running night and day without censing, they would have travelled among them 200 miles in every minute. The length of the line opened increased by 486 miles, and became 10.867 miles; and the gross receipts of the year £28. mereased by 480 mines, and became 10.501 miles; and the gross receipts of the year £28,565,335, considerably exceeded the interest of the national debt, and amounted to about 8 per cent, on the capital. The total raised by shares and loans increased from £318,130,127, at the end of 1860 to £362,327,338, an increase from £318,150,127, at the cent of 1860 to £362,327,338, an increase from £318,150,150 to 100,000 to 1 more than £14,000,000 in the year. working expenditure rose to above 48 per cent, and the net receipts only increased by about £130,000, or less than one per cent on the increase of capital. The nett receipts were about 2130,000, or less than one per cent. on the increase of capital. The nett receipts were rather ever four per cent, on the capital. 284 persons were killed upon railways in the course of the year, and 853 injured; but the accidents to passenger trains in which passengers were killed or injured were but 43 in number, causing the death of 46 passengers, and injury to 771 more—one passenger killed or injured in about 220,000. In addition to this 14 accidents were reported to the Board of Trade in which no passenger was injured, and 20 passengers were killed through getting into or out of trains in motion, and 13 more through their own misconduct, or want of caution. The number of passengers killed or injured not trough such rashness, but from causes beyond their own control, was, in 1858, 445; in 1857, 354; in 1860, 509; in 1861, 827. In the latter year the sum of £135,062 was paid as compensation for personal injury. 128 servants of the companies, or of contractors, were killed in the year, 57 trespassers, and 17 persons receivers at lovel receivers.

in the year, 57 trespassers, and 17 persons crossing at level crossings. The Official Gazette of Turin states that the Italian mission to Persia has met with the most cordial reception from the Persian authorities and foreign emissaries, and that its members enjoy the most perfect health. The naturalists attached to the health. The naturalists attached to the mission are deeply engaged in botanical and geological researches. On the 13th ult. Professors de Filippi, Lessona, and Ferrati, Marquis Centurioni, Marquis Doria, Captain Clemenich, and M. Orio commenced the ascent of the volcano Demavend, in company ascent of the vicinio behavior, in company with an English officer, Captain Champain, R. E. All except two of the party, MM. de Filippi and Doria, succeeded in attaining the summit after much toil, not unattended with with danger. Of the three barometers with with danger. Of the time balanteers with which the party were provided, only one reached the summit in safety; the first barometer, in fact, which ever got there, although the ascent had been attempted during the present century by members of nearly all the Russian, British, Prussian and French Missions sent to Persia from time to time. The Italian party remained more than an hour on the summit, making barometrical and meteorological observations which, it is believed will settle many a doubtful point respecting the highest peak of the Elburz chain, and its connection with the Caucasian and Alderbijan ranges. From Russian trigonometrical measurements, effected on the Caspian Sea, the height of the Demavend was found to be between 18.517 and 18,551 Russian feet, equivalent to the English but it may be questioned whether the Russians could, from the stations of Ferahabad and Ashur, perceive the very highest pinacle of the volcano, and hence a reliable barometrical measurement of the alfitude will be better calculated to settle the point than any trigonometrical survey.

sen the dignity of their office. If a private individual is to be condemned and punished for the officence, it is just as neces-gation, still is such as teads to place his adversion. The expression of this public voice can never have the effect of paralyzing the influence of courts of justice. The very contrary must be the result, for it tends to uphold their purity, and, as a consequence, the respect due to them. As long, therefore, as a newspaper confines itself to the intelligent exposition of this public opinion-as long as it is not influenced by motives of private malice-its freedem should be respected. If this then be the case in countries having a numerous staff of judges, a representative form of government, how much more necessary that the principle should obtain in a country where the highest court is composed of one judge, and where the government of the country is rested in the hands of one man, who is responsible only to government thousands of miles away. In such a country, if any, the expression of public opinion should be left free and untrammelled; it is needed for the pub-lie good to impose some check upon the conduct of those in power. We cannot but think that Judge Begbie would have acted far more wisely had he not chosen to stretch the power vested in him for protecting the dignity of his office to such an extent as to attempt to gag the press. As to the merits of the charge instituted against him in the letter in the British Columbian, for publication of which the editor was comnitted for contempt, we shall not trouble ourselves. Whether the version of the transaction given by the judge be the only true one, we shall leave to those best acquainted with the facts to decide. But this one can easily infer from the whole affair-that the law and the condition of things in British Columbia render it possible that a judge who engages in pre-emption speculation in lands may be called upon to be a judge in his own cause that he may be asked to decide appeals from the decisions of magistrates in which he is an interested party; that where from the fact of his having purchased a pre-emption claim from a foreigner, who was not entitled to pre-empt, and who was refused the privilege of recording this claim by the magis trate, and from the fact of this refusal being made the subject of appeal to the judge, who if he did not order the magistrate to record the claim, at least recommended it, which case, one can easily excuse the motive that would induce an editor to give place to a communication of such public interest,

More particularly is this so, as the object was evidently not for the purpose of bringing the administration of justice into contempt but to obtain such an amendment of the law as would prevent officials dabbling ere he took advantage of his official position to satisfy his ruffled feelings by the incarceration of the editor of the Columbian. We could easily justify him in committing one who in open Court was wanting in that res pect which is due to the office, but the ex tension of that power to things done outside the Court should be exercised with the greatest discretion, and only upon the most urgent occasions. It is an exercise of the p wer, to some extent, of a legislature, judge and jury, which when least used is most to be commended. The only possible defence the judge could have for his extraordinary and arbitrary exercise of power would be in fact, that he could not well obtain redress for an injurious attack upon his character in any other way, as his was the Court before whom such an action would be tried.

But even this he would not be justified in using as long as the publisher of an article

POLICE AT THE THEATRE. - Another man was fined in the Police Court yesterday morning for being disorderly in the Theatre. The accused was talking rather loud, and being ordered to desist by officer Dumphy, turned round and abused him, for which offence he was locked up. The accused made the usual excuse-that he did not know the officer was a policeman, or should not have misconducted himself. Now, Dumphy is regularly detailed every evening to do duty in the Theatte; and on several occa-sions when his interference has been called sions when mis interference has been carried for, his authority as a constable has been resisted. Mr. Pemberton on one occasion when a case of this kind was brought before him, gave orders that the officers placed on duty in the theatre should appear in unitary. been disrebut they seem to have garded. We presume that the attendance of the officers is for the sake of preserving order, not for detective purposes. The police by going there in civil dress are not only exposed to having their authority resisted and being assaulted through persons not and being assaulted unrough persons not recognizing their position, but strangers who have not an intimate acquaintance with the members of the force are likely to get into a scrape by resenting the interference of persons that they cannot know are police STILL HARPING ON MY DAUGHTER,-The Chronicle still harps about Commander Verney; still thinks "a little gold lace makes the Police Magistrate's bench attractive, but it is questionable whether it adds at all to its dig-We are sorry our cotemporary don't like uniforms decorated with gold lace, but it nke unforms decorated with gold lace, but it can't be helped. It says "no precedent can be found in any other of the British North American Colonies" for a naval officer being a magistrate. FILLING UP THE HARBOR .- While the Lands and Works Department are engaged in filling up the harbor in front of the government ouildings on James' Bay, other persons are perseveringly lending their aid by dumping soil into the water from a vacant lot on Johnson street. It is all very well for the citizens to pay for having the mud removed from the streets by persons unauthorized by the Corporation; but what will they say when they learn that it is the practice to pitch every load of muck scraped from the coads into the habor? The kind of soil thus shot into the water from the scavengers' carts being in many instances "slush," it is carried away by each this many that was designed to be a cartly reposed. tide much more easily than the earth removed in grading the Government Reserve. The matter deserves the immediate attention of the city authorities, as the evil has existed for several days already.

VICTORIA THEATRE. - Last evening Miss Mitchell appeared for the second time in this city in her great character of Margaret Her rendering of that difficult part was excellent. Mr. Waldron, too, appeared to advantage as Matthew Elmore. The part of se was taken by Mr. Wood, who, with Mrs. Waldron as Manon, created considerable merriment. After the musical interlude in which Miss Divine sung, the laughable fared of "Irish Assurance" brought down the house of "Irish Assurance" brought down the house. To night Victor Hugo's great drama of "Lucretia Borgia, or the Poisoner," will be produced, in which Miss Mitchell will appear in her great role of Lucretia; the part of the Duke to be taken by Mr. Waldron, Mr. Thayer will appear as Genarro, and Mr. Cranshaw as Jeppo. The laughable farce of Family Jars," in which Miss Divine will appear as Liddy Larrigan, will conclude the SUIT FOR WAGES .- The case of Edward Harrison v. Dr. Tuzo came up on remand, before Mr. Pemberton yesterday morning. Mr. Pearkes appeared for the defendant This was a suit for an amount of wages alleged to be due from the Hudson Bay Company to the plaintiff for his labor as a shipwright. He swore that he had been led to believe from Dr. Tuzo that he would re-ceive $4 50 or $5 per day, and called two

Nor So .- Our cotemporary made an announcement yesterday which shows it to be eminently successful in economizing the truth. It stated : "The Colonist of yesterday has something to say about this committee (Wales), and comes out flatsfooted in favor of their keeping the money without rendering an account to the public." We took no such position. We stated that we were not disposition. We stated that we were not disposed to criticise or condemn the committee till they reported what they really had done; but that a report was exacted, and had been promised. We trust that hereafter our componency will not make it necessary for us to remind it that one of the noblest characteristics of Englishmen is their love of truth.

ALLEGED ROBBERY .- A man named James Mahrooney was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Blake, on a charge of stealing from the person of Thomas Lyons a purse containing 10 ounces of gold dust. No gold dust taining 10 ounces of gold dust. No gold dust was found upon the person of the accused when searched at the station house, and only about $10 in coin. The robbery is said to have been committed upon the complainant while he was in a state of intoxication, last Wednesday evening.

Concert.-The vocal and instrumental concert that we mentioned a few days since as likely to come off shortly, will be given, we understand, some time next week. The performance is likely to be one of a very plensing character, as variety will constitute the passage within eight months. A safe one charm of the entertainment. The several vocalists whose names will shortly ap pear in the programme, have been assiduously practising during the last few weeks. PATENT FIRE LIGHTER.-We were shown yesterday a very useful article of the above description, which would doubtless it introduced, soon become a necessity in domestic fiercely for several minutes, with sufficient heat to ignite any ordinary fuel. It is quite portable, and above all very cheap, costing only $1 per gross. The maker will be round with it shortly, and we would recommend every one to give it a trial.

THE COMAX ROAD .- The contract for the construction of a road from Nanaimo to the Point, in Esquimalt harbor, to be placed in Comax District was yesterday awarded to the battery which is about to be erected at Mr. Malcolm Munro. The same is to be that place. ten feet in width, the bridges throughout to be twelve feet. Mr. Munro will start for be twelve feet. Mr. Munro will start for Nanaimo with thirty men next Monday in the steamer Emily Harris, and intends to commence work immediately.

CHY COUNCIL.

FRIDAY, Dec. 5, 1862.
Council met at 7 p. m. Present Bis Worship the Mayor and a full beard.
This was a special meeting called for the purpose of confirming a resolution passed at a former meeting with regard to obtaining a loan of £5,000. The same was, however, proved out of order, as the Act provides that only for special purposes such loans may be raised—sewage being a purpose net mentioned in the Act, but which appeared in the resolution.
The following was then carried:
Resolved—That this Council borrow the sum of £5,000 sterling under guarantee from the Government, in accordance with the 224 and 23d sections of the Act of Incorporation, for the purpose of grading and macad mixing the streets of the city.
On the motion of Mr. Lewis, it was resolved that a spheial meeting be called by the Mayor for the purpose of confirming said resolution.

The following report from the City Inspector was then read:

Dec. 1st, 1862.
Some dissension occurred upon the questions involved in this communication.
Mr. Copland seemed to think that the By-law alone referred to stoye-pipes erected after its pasage; Messrs, Hielks and Stronach were of opinion that the Fire Wardens were authorized to order the removal of any stove-pipes.
Mr. Searby finally offered the following resolution: That the City Inspector be instructed to order the removal of all stove-pipes that may be in a dangerous state, and in case the same be not removed after a reasonable time, he be instructed to call the notice of the Fire Warden in whose ward the said stove pipe may be, to the condition to call the notice of the Fire Warden in whose ward the sail stove pipe may be, to the condition thereof. Carried.

A communication received from Mr. Hatch, a carpenter, drawing the attention of the Council to the fact of the time having come for contracts to be given out for the construction of foot-paths where property-holders have not complied with the ordinance, and suggesting that certain foot-paths on Douglas street be haid by contract forthwith, was read and placed on file.

The Council then adjourned until Monday evening next.

Vaccination.

Vaccination.

Entrent Battish Colonist—Sir: A letter in your paper, this morning, headed "quacks," is important. It is high time the Legislature adopted steps for the registration of qualified medical men, as it is as necessary here as anywhere else that the public and such practitioners should be pretected from such impostors, for our city has now got its due share of such. But one thing I beg here to allude to, and that is vaccination, as small-pox is now raging with fatal effect in our midst. It is therefore the urgent duty both of the medical profession and the public to agitate the question of miversal vaccination as the grand preventive of that fearful complaint.

Supplies of good vaccine should therefore be can be vaccinated at some small charge fixed by Good matter, and where a constant supply of good matter, obtained from healthy Europeans is accessible. In the face of such a scourge in a community where the deaths of several young men have been lately recorded from it in our journals, instant preventive steps should be taken. Yours, etc., Chircurdicts. Vicionia, V. I., Dec. 4, 1852.

Don Quixote.

Some one signing himself " Don Quixote' has sent us the following for solution, about which we know nothing and care less. Posibly it would be a good idea if Don Quixote yould solve the mystery himself and then report. But here is the discovery made by a knight not the creation of the immortal Cer vantes:

Can you inform one of your constant readers what suspicious, long, low, black, topsail schooler it is that has, on several occasions, lately been seen laying off and on oif this port and Esquimalt without entering either port? I think it may be the former U. S. revenue cutter Joo Lane—if so, she is cruising out of commission and minus papers, and a proper officer on board.

May I suggest that H.B.M. steamers on this station keep a sharp look-out for her, for any one that is fortunate enough to capture her will get a good prize.

The case of Graham vs. Glendinning was tried on a summons in the Police Court yesterday morning. It seemed from the evidence that the complainant was passing along the street wrapped in thought, when his head came into collision with a piece of scantling prejecting over the sidewalk, from a building upon which defendant was working, which caused his nose to bleed. The defendant, he asserted, only laughed at the accident, thinking it a good joke, so he obtained a summons for his appearance. The defendant expressed his regret to Mr. Graham for the occurrence, and informed the bench that he had apolegized at the time of the accident. This was denied by the complainant. Mr. Pemberton ordered the defendant to pay the costs, and dismissed the case. dence that the complainant was passing costs, and dismissed the case.

He was conveyed to the Royal Hospital, where in the course of the day the hand was amputated by Dr. Trim-ble. He is now doing well.

The water in the harbor was unusually ow last night about 11 o'clock. The East Lothian was grounded at the Hudson Bay Company's wharf, and the Toundo was high and dry at Jackson & Co.'s lumber vard. Several of the small fleet were also reposing in the mud between Little's and Lenevue's

Extract of letters from efficers on board Her Majesty's steamers:

"In reference to the quality and comparative merits of the Douglas Seam Coal with ordinary English and Welsh Coal, I beg to state that in reference to stowage, Welsh has an advantage over it of about 12 per cent.—Newcastle, 2 per cent, but with most Scotch, the advantage would be in favor of the Douglas Seam of about 2 per cent.—In burning, it makes about the same quantity of smoke as Newcastle or Scotch, but about 1 per cent less clinker; and if burnt slowly, that it os say with fires not pressed, very little ash. The quantity of soot left in tubes is rather large. I consider that one ton of it will evaporate as much water as ordinary Newcastle or Scotch. I have had opportunities of burning a great many ton of both Sydney (in Cape Breton) and Pictou (in Nova Scoia) Coal, and I consider it very much superior to cither of those Coals in its quality for central test clinker than either. I consider that it at least 22 per cent, superior to No. 3 Pit."

The consumption is now five ext. per hour instead of seven cert, and we can run three times as long without cleaning the fires, and much less clinker With one or two exceptions, I consider it as equal to any English coal for steaming; and I can stow as many tons in the bunker as of Welsh Coal."

BILLIOUS APPECTIONS—Are speedily removed by the use of Dr. Jayne's Sanative Pills. The test of 39 years use has proved them superior to all other remedies for the cure of the various diseases for which they are recommended. In their action they are mild and certain, and may be taken at any time without risk from exposure, and on this account they are invaluable to the miner, as they may be taken without necessitating a discontinuance of work, even though the latter should be in the winter.
